Massive well done to our two teams (boys and girls) who took part in the county finals in the FAI 5 a side soccer competition yesterday in Arklow. Our girls team did very well. Our boys team won the county title and faced a very tough final against St. Kieran's, Bray. They won out in the end on a score of 6 - 3.

Well done to the 5th & 6th class children who played in the small schools football league on Thursday. They were narrowly defeated in the final on a scoreline of 1-2 to 1-0.

Also congrats to James Boland who represented our school and West Wicklow schools in the Wicklow Hurling Skills Competition on Monday last in Ballinakill.
