Our Junior Football team play Blessington in Donard on Friday night under lights at 8pm, in the long delayed division 4 West Junior B Final.

Kiltegan "Dances for Friends" benefit night on Friday was a huge success. Thanks to the organising committee, and all who helped in any way on the night, and to everyone who attended and donated, & gave prizes, to make this a night to remember.

Hard luck to MI Dwyers under 17 Hurling Team who were beaten by Bray Emmets in the Co. Final on Sunday.

Congratulations to Kiltegan Under 16 Camogie Team on winning the Co Camogie B Championship Shield on Sunday.

Our club wish Rathvilly the best of luck in the Carlow Co. Final on Sunday.

Well done & congratulations to the Kiltegan under 16 camogie team who brought off a great double for the club by winning the Co. Camogie Shield B Championship Final in Aughrim Community grounds on Sunday, defeating neighbours and rivals Knockananna on a score line of 7-2 to 3-7.

After winning the Co. League early in the year the girls were determined to bring off the double. They were leading at half time 5-0 to 2-5, and after a hard & exciting game of camogie went on to win by a 7 point margin. Our own Trish Keogh on behalf of the board presented the trophy to captain Anna Byrne, who thanked her team for the huge effort, and managers Eva, Michelle & Benny.

The team celebration was held in Talk of The Town after the match. This ends a great year for the club under 14 Junior & under 16 championship and league, plus Féile All Ireland.

The Camogie club annual fund raising 6k, & 10k walk/run through Humewood Estate takes place on Sunday 15th October. Registration starts @ 10pm. Great fun for all the family. Please support as this is the main fundraiser for the club.
