Kiltegan GAA Notes

The weather and un-playable pitches have been the main factor in no games being played for the past couple of weeks. One game that was played in very bad conditions two week ago was Carnew & Kiltegan in the Intermediate Hurling league in Carnew, which Carnew won on a core line of 3-12 to 1-7. This was manager Nigel Byrnes first game in charge and he managed to get 19 players to Carnew for this game, and were well in the game at half time, when the score was 0-4 to 0-5. Carnew scored a couple of early goals at the start of the second half to go on to win the game.

Our scores came from Eoin Coogan 1-0 Liam Keogh, Ciaran Doyle, JJ Phelan, Stephen Coogan, Mark Murphy, one point each, Jonathan Tallon two points.

The appointed referee for the match Ciaran Flemmings, car broke down on the way to the match so manager Nigel Byrne refereed the match & done a great job. Well done Nigel, playing two roles, manager of the team & referee.

A busy weekend ahead for fixtures

Friday 13th our Senior Hurling team play St. Patrick's, Wicklow Town, in the Co. Senior Hurling League at 7pm in Kiltegan.

On Saturday in Kiltegan at 5pm our Intermediate Hurling team play Glenealy.

On Sunday 15th our Senior Football team play Hollywood in the Co. Senior Football League at 11am.

Friday 20th in Kiltegan at 7pm Co. Senior Football league V Blessington.

Our Senior Football team lost to Rathnew in Rathnew on Wednesday night in the Co. Senior Football League.

Our club wish to convey their deepest sympathies to Maeve Foley, Talbotstown on the death of her mother during the week, to her sisters, brothers, relatives and friend of the Germaine family our sympathy.

Lalor Centre Daffodil Day Fundraiser

We will now be hosting our Cake Sale and Coffee Morning on Wednesday 25th April from 9am—12 noon.

Each year we raise in excess of €1,500 and we would greatly appreciate your support this year again to enable us to raise funds for this very worthy cause. If you are handy with a wooden spoon and a mixing bowl, any home cooked cakes, buns etc would go down a treat.

We will also be having our ever popular raffle with numerous prizes to be won.

The first Carboot sale of 2018 will take place in the hall in Knockananna on Saturday 28th of April.

The hall will be open from 8am to allow stall holders to setup. A pitch costs €10, and if you need a table please come early as supply is limited. The Tidy Towns Committee would welcome donations of resaleable bric o'brac which can be dropped off with Esther Fox or Sheila Whelan or at the Hall at the carboot sale. Please join us for a cuppa and a chat.

Looking forward to seeing you on Saturday 28th.
