

ST TEGAN'S HALL

YOU GUYS ROCK!

Everybody involved in putting on last Saturday's variety show would like to thank all of the local talent that took part & put on a great show. It goes to show that there is plenty of talent around the area. A big thank you to all the support we received from the people of the area, without your support we could have no show.

Well Done to the U13 Football team winning the Leinster U-13 Cross County Football Division 5 Shield Final by a point against St. Colmcille's (Longford). Well deserved win by a great bunch of lads....congrats to the team & management.

Our annual fundraiser is on again this year with our Guess The Score for the Wicklow V Offaly Championship match. So if you'd like to be in with a chance of winning €200 the cards should now be out with our Michael Dwyer teams. Please support the club if you can... Thanks!

Thanks to everyone who helped out getting the new cabin put into the pitch in Highpark at the weekend. Great work being put into the pitch to facilitate everyone.

Kiltegan GAA

Our junior hurling team had a good win over Carnew Emmets in the Co. Junior Hurling League in Kiltegan on Wednesday evening, the final score 1-12 to 1-5. We were leading at half time 1-6 to 1-2 and were always in control of this game. Our scorers were John Whelan 1-1, Mark Murphy 0-4 JJ Phelan 2, Eoin Higgins 2, Eoin Coogan, Conan Byrne, Ronan Byrne a point each. This team will play Avondale next Wednesday evening 16th May in Avondale at 7.30pm.

Our club wish Wicklow Co. Football team the very best of luck on Sunday when they take on Offaly in the first round of the Leinster Senior Football championship on Sunday in Portlaois at 4pm. We wish our players Captain of the team Seanie Furlong, Rory Finn, Pdraig O'Toole the best of luck. We also wish luck to Seanie Germaine who is on the Wicklow Senior Hurling Team who take on Mayo in the first round of the Christy Ring Cup in Aughrim on Saturday at 3pm
