LOOKING BACK

LOOKING BACK TO AUGUST 1993:

Kiltegan Senior Hurling team were training hard for the County Senior Hurling Championship they play Parnells Carlow in a challenging match in Old Loughlin on Sunday 7th August 1993 & won 1-14 to 1-8. Andy Coleman 1-0, Sean Byrne 4 points, Raymond Byrne + John Keogh 3 points each, Nigel Byrne 2 points & Noel Cremin + Noel Goggin 1 point each.

The final of the Paddy Byrne Cup was played in Kiltegan this was the B Final Knockanana NS beat Talbotstown NS.

The Hurlers trained Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday for their championship match against Avondale on Sunday the 15th of August 1993.

KILTEGAN GAA NOTES:

Our Senior Football Team recorded back to wins in the County Senior Football Championship when they encountered Avondale on Sunday in Aughrim. The final score 2-14 to 2-9. We were leading at half time by a single point 0-9 to 1-5. Again like our last championship match the lads put in a high powered second half performance with every player on the field giving their best with some great goal keeping by Fergal, some great tackling by the backs, some great scores from our mid-fielders & forwards which put Avondale on the back foot, in fact they had only scored 4 points going into injury time & only scored a goal as the referee was about to blow the end of the game. Our scores came from Rory Finn 1-3, Aaron Byrne 1-0, Seanie Furlong 0-6, Anthony Furlong 0-3 & J.P Dalton & Blaine Harmon 1 point each. We play Rathnew in the next round in Aughrim on Sunday 12th August @ 7pm.

Our Senior Hurlers were beaten by Eireog/Greystones in the County Senior Hurling Championship at Blessington on Tuesday evening on a score line of 2-18 to 0-16. History in the making on Tuesday evening as this was the first time ever that a Senior Hurling Championship was played at this venue. We came into this game after a great win last time but we were slow getting out of the blocks as we were behind 8 points to 1 after fifteen minutes of the game. We did come back but were always chasing the game, we were losing at half time 1-11 to 0-7 but a goal by the opposition early in the second half put the game out of our reach. Our scores came from Seanie Germaine 5 points, Pdraig O'Toole 4, Pdraig Byrne 2 & Steven Coogan, John Tallon, Jeffrey Bermingham, Mark Murphy & Rory Finn 1 point each.

Our Club would like to convey their sympathy with the Jackson Family, Bortle, on the death of Charlotte "Chattie" Jackson. To her sons Benny & George,

Daughter Margaret, relatives & friends, our sympathy.
