Next week's draw will take place on Monday 10th September in Talk of The Town JACKPOT €7,200

Our U14 Camogie team were beaten by Knockananna in the U14 championship in Knockananna on Monday evening. The final score 2-0 to 1-5. Even though they were beaten they still qualify for the semi-final of this computation. A knee injury to Meriam O'Keefe early in the first half was a big blow to the team, but all the girls gave it their best.

Our Intermediate team had a 1pt win over Carnew in their semi final clash in Carnew on Tuesday evening. The final score Kiltegan 0-5, Carnew 0-4. This was a tough battle right from the off with everyone trying their best. Score were hard to come by as both sets of backs very well. This game finished in the dark and could have gone either way. They now have qualified for the Co. final on the 15th of Sept against Avondale. Well done girls. Our scorers were Lynn Fenton 0-2 Jackie Byrne, Eimear Doyle & Fiona Hobson 1pt each.

Our U16 team drew with Glenealy in their championship match in Ballinakill on Wednesday evening again this match finished in the dark.

Our Senior Hurling team were beaten in the las game of the league section of the Co. Senior Hurling Championship by St Patrick's Wicklow Town on Saturday in Aughrim. The final score 4-11 to 2-12. We got off to the worst start in this game when the ball was in out net after just 60 seconds of play, some of our players must had thought that the match had not started yet!, but we got over this set back, and played some good hurling, and were behind at half time 1-8 to 3-5. If we could of only stopped their star forward Andy O'Briem from scoring, who finished this game with 3-10. We still qualify for the quarter finals of this championship which is knock-out , and will probably be against the same opposition tin two weeks time, but id we do reach the semi final a lot of improvement is needed after Saturday's game. Our scorers were Mark Murphy 1-3, Liam Keogh 1-0, Seanie Germaine 0-6, Padraig O'Toole 2 pts & Rory Finn 1pt.

Our Senior Football team take on Hollywood in the last game of the group in the senior Football Championships in Baltinglass on Friday night. Win loose or draw we still qualify for the quarter finals of this championship next weekend the 15th or 16th Sept.

Looking Back 25Years to 1993

Saturday 4th September we entered a hurling team in the Kilmacud Crokes All Ireland Hurling seven a side competition in Dublin. The panel of players were Joh Keogh, Eugene Byrne, Tom & Ned Cremin, Sean Byrne, Mick Brown, Tony Kelly, Peter Byrne, Christy O'Toole
Sunday 5th September Junior Football Ovenson Cup semi-final Kiltegan V Blessington in Hollywood Kiltegan 0-7 Blessington 0-10. Also senior football league Kiltegan V Rathnew in Kiltegan, final score 1-4 Rathnew 2-14. Celebrations were still continuing after our great win in the Senior Hurling Championship final. Schools in the area were visited as well as the pubs in the area.
