Beat those January Blues & turn that frown upside-down!

1) Make a change

Why not get a new hair cut or try a new hair color?

2) Buy something

Buying something nice can make you smile even if it's just a candle!

3) Get a Diary

Organizing yourself is key to beating the blues. Writing those special dates down can give you a boost & something to look forward to

4) Smile

It sounds silly, but it's been proven that if you smile more, you begin to feel happier.

5) Get Fit

Join a gym or start some exercise to boost you, not just physically, but also mentally!

Kiltegan Camogie

Kiltegan Camogie club held their AGM in the GAA club house on Wednesday night. After giving a great service to the club for the past four years Lorcan Byrne stepped down as chairman. Mick Ryan has taken over the position of chairman for the coming year. The position of secretary was not filled when Ann Murphy stepped down as secretary. This position will hopefully be filled at the first committee meeting of the year on 23rd January.

Full list of Officers 2019

President : Mary Byrne
Chairman : Mick Ryan
Treasurer : Iris Keogh

Child Welfare Officer : Fiona Hobson
PRO : John Timmins, Paula Boland
Register & Insurance Officer : Iris Keogh

The club had a very successful year even though they did not win many cups or trophies. The fielded teams from U6,8,10,12,14,16 & Intermediate only being beaten by one or two points in many finals during the year. They look forward to the coming year. The club had a very successful year fund raising with club raffle & walk/run through Humewood being very successful. The club wish to thank the many coaches who helped with the many teams during the year, and hope they will continue their great work this coming year

The club would like to thank Lorcan Byrne & Ann Murphy for their contribution over the years.
