We will be launching our ClubForce App which provides the facility to Pay Membership Online, Play Kiltegan GAA Lotto Online, keep up to-date with club news and much more. Kaideeen Knitwear will also be in attendance if anyone would like to order club gear.

This is an important event for Kiltegan GAA & Camogie and we would encourage everyone of all ages to attend. Light Refreshments will be served.

Kiltegan GAA Notes

Our very much under strength Senior Football team played Co. Champions St Patrick's Wicklow Town in the Co. Senior Football League on Wednesday night in Ballinakill, and lost on a score line of 1-4 to 0-17, our third defeat in a row. It was turning back the clock to the old years in the club on Wednesday night when four players who were carrying injuries had to line out to field a team and when one of our players Jonathan Tallon got injured at the start of the second half our selector Stephen Corrigan had to step in and play, having not played for the last six years. But taking everything into consideration the lads who turned up to play gave a great account of themselves and were only behind at half time 0-9 to 0-2 after playing against a strong wind. We missed many scoring chances from play and from frees, but a great effort from all.

Our scorers Blaine Harmon 1 goal, Cathal Fitzgerald 3 points, Rory Finn 1 point. There will be no Senior football for a few weeks as hurling takes centre stage next week.

Our club is delighted to announce that our lotto & club membership can now be done online logon to Lotto : https://play.clubforce.com/play\_newa.asp?ll\_id=1828#Anchor
