Help Us Trash 100km

Next weekend April 5th/6th our Kiltegan Community & Surrounds in conjunction with National Spring Clean month have set ourselves a challenge of cleaning 100km of road from litter and we plan to accomplish that challenge. Routes have been identified and a local person on each route will notify people living in each townland of when their area will be cleaned. Bags, gloves etc.. will be available from your local representative.
This is a big community event and we would encourage and need everyone to Pitch In, Put Trash In Its Place and help keep our community litter free.

If anyone has any queries please contact Paula Boland (086) 6861271 or Nigel Byrne

Our Senior Hurling team played out a draw with Eirog Greystones in the Co. Senior Hurling League in Kiltegan on Sunday morning. The final score Kiltegan 1-15 Eirog 2-12.

We were leading this game at half time 1-9 to 1-7. Both teams were guilty of some bad wides and missing scoreable frees, but overall both sides played some great hurling and maybe a draw was a fair result as we gear up for the Senior Hurling Championship in two weeks time against Carnew.

Our scores came from Mark Murphy 1-0 Aaron Byrne 3, Eoghan Byrne,4, Ronan Byrne 4, Conal Byrne2 Johnathan Tallon 1, David Williamson 1.

Our senior football team play AGB in the Co. Senior Football League on Sunday 7th in Arklow at 11am.
