KILTEGAN G.A.A

Our Junior B Football Team had a great win over An Tochar in the first game in the County Junior B Football Championship at Roundwood on Thursday night. The final score Kiltegan 1-11, An Tochar 1-6.

Our Senior Hurlers had their first win in the County Senior Hurling Championship when they beat Avondale on a score line of 1-17 to 1-13. Leading at half time 0-7 to 0-4 Avondale took the game to us after half time and went 2 points up on us early in the second half. The sides were level on a few occasions until we got the all important goal late in injury time by Eoghan Byrne to win the match. Our other scorers were Seanie Germaine 12 points, Padraig O'Toole 3 points and Mark Murphy 2 points.

Our Junior Hurlers also had a great win in the Junior Hurling Championship when they beat Eire Og, Greystones in Greystones on Wednesday evening. Final score Kiltegan 2-19, Eire Og, Greystones 3-10.

Our Senior Football Team play Tinahely in the next round of the County Senior Football Championship in Aughrim on Saturday at 5:30pm in a must win game.

Our club wish Ian Byrne, son of Raymond Byrne (former Kiltegan player) the best of luck as he lines out at Number 15 for Kilkenny Minor Hurling team in the All Ireland Hurling Final in Croke Park on Sunday against Galway, a big day for all the Byrne Family, Veronica, John, Damien, Eoghan & Sean.

KILTEGAN CAMOGIE: Our Intermediate Camogie Team played Bray in the first game of the County Intermediate Camogie Championship in Knockananna on Monday evening and lost on a score line of Kiltegan 1-3, Bray 1-7. We were missing many of our key players through injury, holidays etc., but the girls who played gave it their all and could have been closer or maybe have won the game if they had taken their chances at goal. We were losing at half time 0-4 to 0-2. Sarah Byrne scored all our scores from frees and play. We play Annacurra in Annacurra next Tuesday evening at 7pm.
