STAY ALERT

On Tuesday night last there was a break-in at the rear of St Tegan's Hall. The oil pipe was cut and oil was taken, also a window was damaged to gain entry to the hall. It has been reported to authorities. We are asking everyone to be vigilant and keep an eye out for any unusual activity in our community.

BABY LOSS REMEMBRANCE MASS

 Congratulations & well done to Mary & her team who arranged such a beautiful service, celebrated by Bishop Denis Nulty with Fr. John, Fr. Seamus & Revd. Robert concelebrating, for this special night. Fr. Pat opted to take his place in the choir. We are deeply indebted to our celebrants, our altar servers & those who so willingly carried out a ministry. The hard work & dedication of our musicians & choir contributed hugely to the success of the night. A special mention of our young ladies, Emma, Ava, Ella, Alanah & Katie who excelled. To Kieran & his crew for lighting & sound effects thanks & well done. We are very grateful to Deirdre & her staff for giving us the use of the school for serving teas after the service. A big thank you to the four ladies & Rachel who prepared and served the cuppa. The generosity of all who supplied food for the evening is very much appreciated. Behind the scenes a lot of hard work was carried out - the cleaning of the grounds, the cleaning, decorating & preparation of the church & the management of traffic flow & parking.
To all of you a big thank you.
Fr. Pat.

KILTEGAN G.A.A NOTES

Our Senior Hurling team bowed out of this years County Senior Hurling Championship at the Quarter final stage when they were well beaten by Carnew in Aughrim on Saturday on a score line of Kiltegan 0-15, Carnew 5-11. This brings an end to our senior campaign for another year & rebuild the team for the coming year as our Junior Hurling team are in a County Final. Some more players may come on stream to keep Hurling going in our club.

Our Senior football team play Eire-Og/Greystones in the Keating trophy in Arklow on Sunday morning at 11:30am. This is a must win game to avoid regression battle in the next match. Support for the team would be appreciated.

Our Club wish to convey their deepest sympathies to the following families who suffered bereavement in the last week.

The Mallin Family, Portrition, Kiltegan on the death of James 'Jimmy' Mallin.
