KILTEGAN G.A.A NOTES

Our Senior Hurlers suffered a heavy defeat at the hands of Bray Emmetts in the last game of the league in the County Senior Hurling Championship at Aughrim on Saturday.

The Final Score: Kiltegan 0-8 Bray Emmetts 4-18.

This game or the result made no difference to us as we already had qualified for the Quarter finals of this years Championship when we play Carnew in Aughrim on Saturday at 3pm but a better performance will be needed on Saturday if we have to over come Carnew as we were never in contention in this game. On Saturday we were behind at half time 2-8 to 0-5 with Seanie Germaine scoring 7 points and Aaron Byrne one point.

If we have any chance on Saturday more scoring power from the forwards and tighter defending will be needed.

Sunday September 16th— Our Senior Football team play EireOg Greystones in the Keating Trophy in Arklow at 11:30am.
