Agenda: Minutes of last meeting arising from minutes, correspondents, Treasurer report, Dinner Dance, Team Managers, Senior & Junior football teams, votes of sympathy & planning permission Wicklow County Council.

1995

KILTEGAN GAA NOTES:

No joy for Pdraig O'Toole and his Carlow IT team as they were well beaten by DCU in the Siegerson Cup Final in DCU, Dublin on Wednesday night after beating Letterkenny IT last week in the semi-final. They found the going tough against the Dublin DCU team who were five time winners of this competition while Carlow IT were going for their first victory.

Final Score: 0-14 to 0-7.

Both County teams lost their opening matches in the first rounds of the National League last weekend. The Football team play Waterford in Aughrim on Sunday and the Hurlers are away to Meath in Navan also on Sunday.

We wish all our players on both teams the best of luck.

Our new club gear for 2020 for both Club GAA & Camogie was launched in Kiltegan Hall on Thursday night by Kaideen Knitwear, Baltinglass. Anyone who could not attend on Thursday night can view or purchase club gear in the factory in Baltinglass. Niall will look after you

Our club wish a happy 60th Birthday to our former player and present committee member Pat Judy Keogh who celebrates in the Talk of the Town Saturday night.
