KILTEGAN GAA NOTES

Our very much under-strength Senior Football team played Hollywood in the first game of the year in the County Senior Football League on Sunday morning in Kiltegan. Final score: Kiltegan 0-7, Hollywood 3-14. We played all our football in the first half and were only a point behind at half time (0-6 to 0-7) thanks to some great saves by goalie Emmett Murphy and some great runs through the middle by veteran JP Dalton, where he won many frees. Cathal Fitzgerald put them over the bar, in fact, he scored 6 points in total and the other score coming from Steven Farrell. We lost our way in the second half where Hollywood scored at will and we only scored once.
