

MOTHER'S DAY – 27th March 2022

Happy Mother's Day

Good and Gentle God, we pray in gratitude for our mothers and for all the women of theory who have joined with you in the wonder of bringing forth new life. You who became human through a woman, grant to all mothers the courage they need to face the uncertain future that life with children always brings.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Deacon: Liam Dunne

Luke 15:1-3,11-32* The Elder Son

Sometimes we can be so familiar with a particular Gospel passage that we switch off after the first few sentences. That would be a shame, especially when listening to today's parable, which is unique to Luke, and is one of the great blockbuster parables. The parable of things lost and found emphasise the unending forgiveness of God and God's rejoicing for those who return. Parables always have something to teach us. They enable us to engage at a deeper level with tough questions, inviting us to reflect on similar situations in our own lives. The main topic here is forgiveness, and the real challenge in the story is what happens after the lost son returns. The Father's welcome for the younger son would have been considered extremely foolish by those listening to this story, and their viewpoint is mirrored in the reaction of the elder brother. After all, he has 'worked like a slave' for years and is understandably upset at the lavish party that has been thrown for his delinquent sibling. The Father, however, reassures the disgruntled brother that his welcome for the younger brother does not change his love for him or diminish the inheritance he will receive. This Gospel shows us that God returns those who are lost to the community, regardless of the obstacles that we might put in place. Jesus teaches a lesson here in radical hospitality. No matter how far one wanders from home, God still loves us, waits for us and is calling us back with open arms. The elder brother has a choice: he can come to the party or feel sorry for himself. It will cost him nothing to reach out to his younger brother, but his ego is in the way. What does he do? Significantly, Luke does not finish the story; rather he leaves it up to us to continue the narrative. We have nothing to lose in welcoming home the lost.

PRAYER FOR PEACE FOR UKRAINE

Loving God,
we pray for the people of Ukraine, for all those suffering or afraid, that you will be close to them and protect them. We pray for world leaders, for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices.
We pray for the world that in this moment of crisis,
we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need.
May we walk in your ways so that peace and justice become a reality for the people of Ukraine and for all the world. Amen.

SYNOD - LISTENING LENT

Pope Francis has called for a Universal Synod of the Church. He wants to hear from the whole Church about the reality of being part of the Church right now. The first level of this four-fold process is Parish. He wants us, in the parish, to think about the following questions:

Conversation One: COMMUNION.

Thinking about the Church and our parish, how and when do I find being part of it a source of joy or nourishment for me in my faith? When might it bring disappointment or pain?

Conversation Two: Participation.

When I hear the word ‘Church’, who do I think of? who is missing? whom do we need to listen to? how can we be more inclusive?

Conversation Three: Mission.

Thinking about how we as a parish community bring the love of Christ into the world, what one thing does our local parish do really well? what one thing could it do better? what one thing could I do? what specific hope or dream do I have for the Church moving forward?

Questionnaires are available in the Church, please take one home and fill it out and return as soon as possible.
