KILTEGAN GAA & CAMOGIE NEWS

CONDOLANCE

Another legend of our GAA club passed away last week, the legendary, the great Vincent Harvey of 3 college St. Carlow, died at his home on the 1st November. A renowned footballer with his club Eire Og, which he was a founder member, he also played for many years with his native Carlow Co. team. When he retired from playing he turned to training with great success. He was the first paid trainer to be hired by our club, when Donal Foley team manager and club secretary John Timmins approached him to train our junior football team in early 1973. He agreed and his fee was 2pounds 50 pence per training session and match. When we bought this back to the committee the comment was how was the club going to afford him. The first training session was held in High Park with 12 in attendance. We won the first ever football medal when the team won the West Junior Football League beating Vallymount. We lost to Dunlavin in the first round of the West Junior Football Championship and Harvey was sacked! He was asked to return to train the team in early 1975 which he did with great success, winning the first ever Co. Junior Football Championship after a replay against Laragh. We went on to win the Corcoran cup, Leader Cup, Tutty Cup, Talk of the Town Cup and in 1976 we won the first ever Intermediate Co. Football Championship and division 4 of the league. He also started our own seven a side football tournament which ran for many years. He led us to our first ever Senior Football championship in 1978. Unfortunately Harvey's babes as they were know were beaten by Rathnew. We won division 2 of the league. We won three county seven a side championships and division 1 of the county league. His team talks before and at halftime were something else, that a great amount of children and adults would gather round to hear. He was a great man for fund raising and socialising in the local pubs, his tips for the horses were sometimes hit and miss. Vinny had a great football brain and his services as a trainer went nationwide in Wicklow and beyond, wherever he went he bought success. A true gentleman on and off the field it was a pleasure to know him.

To his wife Madge his son Vincent and daughters Olivia & Elaine and his family and his many GAA friends our sympathy and may the soil of your native Carlow lay gently on your soul.

LOOK BACK TO 50 YEARS CONTINUED..

1972 with the West Hurling League Final of 1971 and the semi final of the County Championship the year looked very promising for our hurling team. We played three challenge matches in the lead up to our County Junior semi final against Newcastle which was fixed for Sunday 12th March in the county grounds in Aughrim. The build up to the game was low key, with anyone who was interested in hurling at the time wondering how do you get to Aughrim as people did very little traveling outside their own area, and as cars were scarce people were booking their lifts well before the big day. The big day arrived and there were some nerves as we took to the field and the hallowed turf of the county grounds where all the great teams play. We lost the match Kiltegan 0-6 Newcastle 1-06. The team had preformed well and we celebrated a great loss in Lawless Hotel, some of our supporters got lost on the way home. West Board Secretary Peter Keogh fixed the 1971 West Junior Hurling League final for Sunday 26th March against Hollywood in Baltinglass. We were on a high after our performance in Aughrim. Con Hayes from Thurles, a new guard in Baltinglass, Tom Ryan from Dublin who was a farm manager in Talbotstown estate then McGraths now Jim Keoghs, Joe Purcell from Clonmel a student in St. Patrick's collage, Frank White who came to work in Baltinglass were all new members of the team and were on the panel. The game ended in a draw so the wait for a medal went on. Final score Kiltegan 1-05 Hollywood 2-02. The first replay in Blessington was called off for some unknown reason on the third attempt Kiltegan won on a score line 5-10 to Hollywood 1-02. There was no cup just medals but we did not care a medal at last this the first ever medal won by a Kiltegan team. Winning team: Kieran Bermingham, Joe Doyle, Pa Leary, Tom Pearson, Conn O Sullivan, Peadar Daly, Pat Foley, Sean Keogh, Richard Dick Burk, Martin Coleman, Nat Pearson, Tom Ryan, Mick Ryan, Peter Keogh, Joe Purcell, SUBS: Seamus Clynch, Frank Whyte, Michael Murphy, Sean Byrne, James Byrne, Peter Mc Grath, Mick Burke, Larry Daly, Pat Bowes. All those named played at some stage through out the year.

More looking back 50 years to follow next week.

Congratulations to Michael Dwyers on winning a great double on Sunday with the u15 Hurling trophy beating Glenealy and winning B football shield final beating Annacurra.
