St Brigid is considered a patron saint of Ireland and her feast day is celebrated on the 1st of February marking the first day of Spring. She was a pupil of St. Patrick and became famous for her kindness, mercy, and her miracles. In addition, she founded Ireland's most famous mixed (male and female) monastery in County Kildare.

The Bogha Bríde or Brigid's Day Cross is the symbol of the day. Traditionally, reeds or straws are collected from the fields and crafted into a cross. St. Brigid is Ireland's first native saint, the most celebrated Irish female saint, and was the Abbess of one of the first convents in Kildare.

KILTEGAN GAA & CAMOGIE NEWS

CONGRATULATIONS and well done to our own player Pdraig O'Toole who has been announced as Wicklow Senior Football Captain for the 2023 season. Podge is a dual player with our club and has been part of the Wicklow team since 2018. We wish him the very best of luck in the year ahead and the best of luck when he leads out our county team on Saturday night in Netwatch Cullen park against Carlow in the first match in the National Football League at 7.00pm.

Kiltegan Camogie wish to congratulate one of their players Sarah Jane Winders on been appointed captain of the Wicklow Ladies Football team for 2023. We wish her the very best of luck in the year ahead.

Our Senior and Junior Camogie teams get year off to a start with their first training session on Sunday 29th January at 11am on the Astro pitch with Manager Tom Cremin, Trainer Eoin O'Neill, Selector Mick O'Toole.

Membership

Membership for Kiltegan Camogie Club for the coming year is now due: €50 student, €75 adult player, €100 family membership can be paid on-line .
Players who do not register will not be insured for the coming year.

SYMPATHY

Our club wish to convey their sympathy to the Flynn family Knockananna on the sudden death of Andy Flynn last week. Andy a native of Thurles, Tipperary played Junior hurling with our club. Playing his first game in 1981 and his last in 1985. He played in the half forward line on the team and often showed his Tipperary skills scoring some great points, in fact he scored in every match he played in. His only success with the club was winning two West Junior Hurling League medals and playing on a team who reached the Semi-Final of the Co. Junior Hurling Championship in 1984. He loved his hurling and was a true gentleman on and off the field. To his wife Brigid, daughters Majella, Tara, and Amanda, his sons Mark & Darren, his brothers, sisters, relatives and friends our deepest sympathy. May Andy Reast In Peace.
