KILTEGAN GAA & CAMOGIE CLUB NEWS

Our Junior Hurlers travelled to Ballinakill on Wednesday evening 18th June to take on Eire Óg Greystones in the last game in the County Junior Hurling league and came away with a win Kiltegan 2-19 Eire Óg 3-08. The hurling management managed to get 16 players for this match and all players gave a great account of themselves, playing some great hurling. We were ahead at half time 1-10 to 2-04. We started the second half as we finished the first Eoin Byrne at mid field was controlling the game with some great scores. Dean Davis, JJ Phelan, Josh Byrne kept the score board ticking over, while the full back line and half back line kept the opposition out on many occasions. Over all we had a good league campaign losing only two matches and received one walk over from Kilcoole. Winning seven, we should be second in the table but the powers that be have us in third place. Our scores came from Eoin Byrne 1-07, Dean Davis 1-02, JJ Phelan 0-06, Josh Byrne 0-03, Mattie Doyle 0-01. Next up the Junior Championship, and with no junior football on a Thursday and the exams over it may be easier on the players and management to field a full team. Our Minor Football team had a great win over Dunlavin in the Minor Football league at home on Monday evening where they defeated Dunlavin on a scoreline of Kiltegan 4-18 Dunlavin 0-09. This match was over by half time as our lads had a comfortable lead 2-09 to 0-05 and were able to give their big panel of players some game time in a very one sided game.

GARLIC AND ROSEMARY CHICKEN WITH SUMMER RATATOUILLE

4 garlic cloves
4 small chicken breast fillets (about 150g/5½oz each)
2 tbsp olive oil
3 rosemary sprigs, leaves finely chopped
1 lemon, zest only
25g/1oz butter
500g/1lb 2oz cherry tomatoes, halved
1 large courgette, chopped
1 red pepper, thinly sliced
1 tbsp balsamic vinegar
500g/1lb 2oz fresh gnocchi
handful fresh basil leaves, plus extra to serve grated pecorino, to serve sea salt and freshly ground black pepper

Method

Chop the garlic on a chopping board. Sprinkle with sea salt and use the side of the knife to crush the garlic until a rough paste forms. Add the rosemary and lemon zest and finely chop everything together. Put the chicken fillets into a large bowl along with a tablespoon of the olive oil and the garlic and rosemary paste. Stir to fully coat the chicken. (If you have time you can leave the chicken to marinate in the fridge for up to 24 hours.)

Heat a large non-stick frying pan with a tight-fitting lid over a high heat. Add the remaining tablespoon of olive oil. Once hot, fry the chicken breasts for 2 minutes on each side until golden-brown. Transfer to a plate and set aside.

Add the butter, cherry tomatoes, courgette, pepper and balsamic vinegar to the pan. Cook, stirring often, until the tomatoes start to soften.

Reduce the heat and return the chicken to the pan, nestling it into the vegetables. Cover with a lid and cook for 10 minutes, or until the chicken is cooked through and the tomatoes have cooked down slightly.

Remove the lid and cook for a further 5 minutes. Use a fork to burst some of the tomatoes to release some of their juices for the sauce.

While the chicken cooks, bring a large saucepan of salted water to the boil and add the gnocchi. Cook for 1-2 minutes until they float to the surface, then remove with a slotted spoon and add straight to the chicken pan, along with the basil leaves.

Serve the chicken and gnocchi in wide bowls garnished with extra basil leaves, pecorino and a seasoning of salt and pepper.
