

Epiphany: Matthew 2:1-12

Deacon: Rev. Liam Dunne

We observed his star at his rising

The Wise men probably astronomers and philosophers from the region of Persia, but most importantly of all they were seekers. They looked to the skies for astronomical signs which would foretell the birth of a powerful leader. They were awake to the signs of the times. One must admire these Wise Men for the way they set out faithfully on this determined journey, a journey which involved many risks. We don't know details of their religious affiliations and it really does not matter, for this story of the Wise Men is the story of people of all cultures, all countries and all faiths who make a journey in search of God. Matthew sets their story in stark contrast to that of Herod. Herod is 'greatly troubled' when he hears of a possible threat to his power. Rumours of a new king could potentially upset political and religious structures. Herod is an example of a narcissistic leader consumed by his own ego. In contrast, the Wise Men are humble and genuine in their quest to find this child who has been born. The arrival of the Wise Men in Bethlehem is a moment of great joy and grace, as 'on entering the house, they saw the child with Mary, his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage'. God is found in the simple spaces. Let us have the courage to take the risk and move out of our comfort zones in search of Jesus, just as the Wise Men did. They have no idea of what awaited them, but the Gospel speaks of their delight and joy when they arrived at the place. © Triona Doherty & Jane Mellet, 2021. "We often make do with looking at the ground ... I wonder if we still know how to look up at the sky? Do we know how to dream, to long for God, to expect the newness he brings, or do we let ourselves be swept along by life, like dry branches before the wind? - Pope Francis

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

The Epiphany is the manifestation of Jesus as Messiah of Israel, Son of God and Saviour of the World. The great feast of Epiphany celebrates the adoration of Jesus by the wise men (magi) from the East, together with his Baptism in the Jordan and the wedding feast of Cana in Galilee. In the magi, representatives of the neighbouring pagan religions, the Gospel sees the first-fruits of the nations, who welcome the good news of salvation through the Incarnation. (CCC,528)
