Kiltegan GAA & Camogie News

Our Senior Hurling Team welcomed Bray Emmets to Kiltegan on Sunday morning for the County Senior Hurling League, and they went away with a win. Kiltegan 0-19 Bray Emmets 2-15. Both sides served up some great hurling at times, with the scores level on several occasions. We held a 3 pt lead at one stage but we let them back into the game with 3 scorable free's in a row. We went into a 3 pt lead again but they scored a goal to level the match at break 0-11 to 1-8. We raced into an early lead after the break with a pt scored by Mark Murphy. Jack O'Toole took the game to the opposition with 4 great pts in a row, one from play and 3 from free's, but the opposition clawed their way back into the game, but we went ahead again and were 3 pts up, but they scored a goal to level the game with 4 minutes left to play. It looked as if we would share the pts but discipline let us down as we gave away two free's in a row which they scored and won the game by 2 pts. Overall an enjoyable game of hurling. Our scores came from: Jack O'Toole (5pts) Mark Murphy & Aaron Byrne 4 pts each, Sean Murphy, Conor Boland & Liam Keogh 2pts each.

Fixtures: Saturday 16th Senior Football League Kiltegan v Avondale in Avondale at 7.00 p.m.

Congratulations to Josh Furlong on being named player of the week for his display for the Wicklow Minor Football Team. 😊

Our Junior Football Team travelled to Kilbride on Thursday evening to take on the home side in the County Div 4 League and came away with a victory. Kiltegan 2-13 Kilbride 3-8. We came away with a win after a close game of football which could have went any way. We held a slender lead at half time 0-7 to 1-3 and managed to hold on till the end for a 2 pt victory. Our scores coming from Jack Dunne 1-3 who had an excellent game, Derek Daly 1-0, Oisín Foley Shortall, Mickey Foley & Conor Boland 2pts each, Wonder Coogan, Mathew Jackson & Dean Davis 1 pt each.

Our Junior Hurling Team had another victory in the County Hurling League to remain top of the table when they beat St Patricks Wicklow town in Kiltegan on Wednesday evening, Kiltegan 2-13 St Patricks 1-09. The visitors were first to score a point from the throw- in and beat us for the first 20 minutes till we eventually found our range for some good points but the number of wides grew to about 8 and they held a slender point lead at the break, 1-5 to 0-7. We started the second half much brighter and had two points from Conor O'Toole and Stephen Coogan to go into the lead. Goals by Dean Davis and Conor Boland set us on the road to victory. Overall a good display from all the panel, with all our players present getting some game time. Our scores came from Conor Boland 1-4 dean Davis 1-1 Seán Murphy 2pts, Stephen Wonder Coogan, J J Phelan, Kieran Conway, Mathew Jackson, Conor O'Toole & Ronan Flanagan 1 point each. Next game: Wednesday 27th Kiltegan v Bray Emmets in Bray

Camogie

Our Junior Camogie Team had a huge win over Annacurra in the County Junior Camogie League Div 4 at Kiltegan on Friday evening. The final score Kiltegan 4-18 Annacurra 0-0. The unbeaten run in this League continued on Friday evening with our girls making sure they were going to reach the final of this League. They were leading at half time 2-7 to no score, and they continued where they left off in the second half scoring at will, while our backs and goal keeper kept the Annacurra forwards at bay and never gave them a score. They play Avoca now in the League Final. Our scores came from Aoife Boland 0-9 Katelyn Keogh 1-2, Clodagh O'Toole 1-2, Aine Goggin 1-1 Yvonne O'Sullivan 1-0, Leah Spillane 0-4. Carnew travelled to Kiltegan on Tuesday evening to play us in the last game in this league and beat us on a score line of Kiltegan 2-5 Carnew 3-8. Team manager Mark Ryan treated this game as a good work out for the girls given the players game time and trying out new places as the result of the game did not matter, none of the girls put in 100%.The visitors lead for most of the match and were ahead at half time 2-4 to 1-4 and increased their lead in the second half to go and win the match. Our scores came from; Clodagh O'Toole 1-1, Katelyn Keogh 1-0, Aoife Boland 3pts & Lucy Darby 1pt.

The Co League Final is on Tuesday 19th May in Baclinakill at 7pm. All support for the team would be appreciated.
