“This classic way to make a mean hot chocolate it’s a totally delicious winter warmer”

Ingredients

565 ml full cream or semi-skimmed milk
2 tablespoons good-quality drinking chocolate
1 handful marshmallows
sugar, optional, to taste.

mug. When the milk is at a simmer, carefully pour it into a plastic jug or flask. Do this over a sink as you may end up spilling a bit (the trick is to have a big enough jug or flask so the milk only half fills it – you need the extra space for shaking and frothing).

Screw the lid on tightly, place a cloth over the lid for safety, and shake hard for a minute. Remove the lid, minding the steam, and pour the milk into your mugs. A little stir, and you can slurp your way to heaven!

“All God’s Creation Is Very Good!

“World Day of Prayer 2018 from Suri-name. Service takes place on Friday 2nd March at 7.30pm in St. Paul’s Oratory.

Method

This takes around 3 or 4 minutes to make. First put the milk into a pan. Bring to a simmer – not a boil – and while it’s heating, put a tablespoon of choccie powder and sugar, if using, into each mug. Add a little warmish milk from the pan to each mug – you just need enough to dissolve the chocolate powder. At this point, plonk a few marshmallows into each

Our Senior Footballers were beaten in the League last Sunday by Bray Emmetts by 0-9 to 1-4. After playing against a strong wind in the 1st half we were ossing by 3pts at half time. With the aid of the breeze in the 2nd half we were 2pts behind with 10minutes to go when we were awarded a penalty and Stephen Farrell struck it home to put us ahead by 1pt. But Bray finished stronger scoring 3pts in a row to win by 2pts. Disappointing after our great win last week. S Farrell(1-1), A Furling (0-2), P Penrose(0-1). We play Blessington Sun @11am in Kiltegan. (weather permitting).

Tickets for the Social Night in Inisfail on 10th March are still on sale from Damien Byrne (087) 6792761 or Michael Lennon (087) 2586698.

We offer our sympathies to Fr Tom O'Connor, fellow priest family and friends on the death of Fr Des Mc Keever whose funeral took place on Saturday.

We also offer our sympathies to the family & friends of Fr Peter Byrne CSsR limerick & Portriton who was buried at the weekend.
