Kiltegan GAA News

A Quiet week on the GAA front with no matches to report. On Last weeks GAA news we reported that Seanie Furling Scored 1-7 in Kiltegan's quarter final hurling championship match V Carnew in Aughrim. It should have been Seanie Germaine. Seanie Furlong does not paly hurling & is not on the hurling panel.

Our apologies to Seanie Germaine on the error. He is of course top scorer of our hurling team this year.

Our Senior Hurling team of 1993,94& 95 who won the first ever 3 in a row Co. Senior Hurling Championship will be honoured by the Co. Board at the Senior Hurling Final in Aughrim on Sunday 21st October. The club will also honour the team with a sit down meal in Germaine's that Sunday evening at 6pm, which will be a great social occasion for all the players, and club officers of that era.

Kiltegan Camogie

The clubs annual 6k & 10K walk-run takes place on Sunday 14th October at 11am.

Registration in St Peter's Parish Centre, Kiltegan. The 10K run will be the same route as every year. There is a small change to the 6k walk-run. It will start from the main gates in Humewood and go around the lakes & back down the main avenue again, similar route to the last walk-run by the Hall Committee.

Our Club wish to convey their sympathy to the Hannan family on the death of Joe Hannan, Cornann, Rathdangan, who died on 27th Sept. To his sons, daughters, extend family & all his other relatives & friends, our sympathy.
