Kiltegan GAA

Our Very much understrength Senior Football team gave up home advantage as our pitch was unplayable on Sunday morning against Tinahely in the Co. Senior Football League. Tinahely took full advantage and came away with the points on a score line of 4-17—0-9, with player having no regard for their fellow club players or club opting to play soccer. Injuries & Co. commitments left the selector Stephen Corrigan having to tog out to make up a team, with all the lads giving a great effort on the day.

Our senior hurling game against Glenealy was also postponed on Monday due to the pitch being unplayable.

Our club development launch on Monday in Inisfail Baltinglass was a great success, where the plans for the coming years were unveiled, which will benefit our club for the coming years. Thanks to the committee of Damian Byrne, Colm Doyle, Paula & Gerry Boland, David Reel for all their work on this development.

Our senior hurlers play St Patrick's Wicklow town in the Co Senior Hurling League in Kiltegan on Sunday morning 24th March at 11am.

Our club wish to convey their deepest sympathies to the president of our club Danny Byrne on the death of his sister Kathleen in London. To his brother Terry, sister Betty all relatives, friends & her husband & children. our sympathies. Funeral arrangements to follow.

Fresh off the back of what has been a roller coaster 18 months for Jake Carter, the pop singer is delighted to be playing at St. Laurence's GAA Complex on Sat the 20th of July 2019. The Dancing With The Stars (2018) winner has enjoyed enormous success in recent times with his recent single releases, as well as packing out venues across the country including Dublin's Vicar St. and Cork Opera House. With multiple TV projects also on the go, the 20 year old pop singer is delighted to be getting back on stage with his live band and showcasing his latest music in what promises to be a fun filled live concert with plenty of surprises! In aid of Kiltegan GAA & Camogie Club
