RATHVILLY COMMUNITY GAMES

Community games U14 Tag Rugby: Well done to our team who represented Carlow in the Leinster Finals recently. They won their first match against Wicklow which then saw them go up against St Brigid's, Kildare in the semi-final. Unfortunately it wasn't to be our day, but nonetheless they put in massive performances and we are very proud of them. St Brigid's went on to win the final. Our team was as follows: Ciara Byrne, Daire Byrne, Robert Coleman, Daragh Corcoran, Aoibhinn Doyle, Faye Elliot, Liam Gavin, Rory Gavin, Joseph Gibbons, Rachel Hickey, Brynn Nolan and Amalita O Donoghue. We are very grateful to Irene O Byrne who came on board again this year to train our U11's & U14's, we couldn't do it without her! Also to Gerry, Jackie and Julie for all their help at training and to the parents and of course the children for their commitment to training over the last few months.

VISITING PRIEST

As a parish community, we are delighted to welcome Fr. Cristian Pista to spend a month among us. He is resident in the Parochial House and will be involved in Masses and other services in the Parish. He is anxious to interact with parishioners as much as possible. He belongs to the Archdiocese of Bucharest in Romania. He was ordained 12 years ago and has spent 9 of those years as a volunteer missionary in Northern Kenya close to the Ethiopian border. When he returns after the summer, he will be responsible for the foundation of a new parish in his enormous missionary diocese. He had knee surgery in April and is still recuperating. We wish him a speedy betterment and a good experience in Ireland and our parish.

LEGION OF MARY

The Legion of Mary is a worldwide Lay Organization in the Catholic Church. It has millions of active members. Frank Duff a Dublin man was the founder in September 1921. So the Legion will soon be celebrating 100 years of existence. Carlow is a Region of the Legion and several parishes have a branch. The local members assist the Parish Priest in the extension of the faith in the Parish. The spirituality of the Legion is very much based on devotion to Our Lady. Some Carlow Legion members have been given permission to visit Rathvilly parish with the object of finding some who would form a parish group. Please give them a good welcome. They will visit some homes in pairs. (Fr John)
