Message from Fr Sean Hyland

Building on the ongoing great response to Whisperings of My Soul: I have set up a web site which develops on part three, the case for a Divine Creator based on reason and science. Part 3 was targeted primarily at twenty something year olds both believers and agnostics. I have recently been working with the national leaders of the John Paul II Awards, the Alpha Programme now being adopted by a number of dioceses and the national leaders of the Youth 2000 festival. My plan is to get a link on as many University/College web sites as possible by Christmas. If we get the positive attention of even a small percentage of twenty something year olds, the dynamic of that generation and social media is such, that we could raise the argument for a reasoned case for a Divine Creator amongst this demographic to a national conversation by this time next year. Wouldn't that be something? The web site is populated and is at www.whisperingsofmysoul.com.

WILD FLOWER CAFÉ

The Wild Flower Café, Rathvilly will be open this Sunday 18th August.

PRAYER AT THE PLOUGHING 2019:

I am asking people all around the diocese to choose the prayer they like most, such as the Rosary or the Lord's Prayer. Perhaps a prayer learnt at their mother's knee or handed down ó ghlúin go glúin in their family.

The Ploughing Championships takes place in the middle of the annual Season of Creation, which the Church marks from 1 September – 4 October. Because the 3-day ploughing championship focuses on rural living, I am also inviting people to submit a personal prayer (no more than 100 words) about the environment which they compose themselves. This new environmentally centred prayer could relate to farming, gardening or sustainability. People can submit their preferences and entries to: prayerattheploUGHING@kandle.ie between now and 10 September. Alternatively they are welcome to post them to me at Bishop's House.

A shortlist of the favourite prayers will be displayed at the Kildare & Leighlin stand when the event gets underway on 17 September.

The theme of the Kildare & Leighlin stand at the ploughing is 'Digging Deeper – Rooting for Christ' a continuation of our diocesan campaign exploring new ways for people to understand their faith. +Denis
