KILTEGAN G.A.A NOTES

Congratulations & well done to our Junior Hurling Team who were crowned County Junior A Hurling Champions for 2019 on Saturday in Aughrim when they defeated Bray Emmett's by a one point margin 2-9 to 2-8. This game was played in a great sporting manner by both teams with the team level on most occasions. We were losing at half time 0-6 to 1-5 but our team were hell bent on winning and put in a great second half and were worthy winners in the end.

This team was made up of young and old. For some of the young players were coming up from Michael Dwyers Minor Hurling team. Some of the older players like John Keogh, Christy O'Toole and Jeffery Bermingham were on the Kiltegan Hurling team who won the 2nd Senior Hurling Championship 25 years ago in 1994. Peter 'Bubbles' Byrne who was a sub on the team won his first Senior Hurling Championship medal in 1987 and 1994. Two of last years minors served our goals Daniel Twyford Troy and Andy Foley 1-1, Jeffrey Bermingham 6 points and Joey Maher & Sean O'Neill 1 point each.

Winning team: John Keogh, Liam Kavanagh, Anthony Furlong, Gavin Keogh, Padraig Farrell, Christy O'Toole, David Phibbs, Kevin Quinn, Jeffrey Bermingham, Andy Foley, John Whelan, Sean O'Neill, TJ Kenny, Eoin Coogan, Joey Maher.

Subs: Daniel Twyford Troy, Peter Byrne, Craig McGuire, Niall Gartland, Aiden Byrne, Damien Hanlon, Fergal Farrell, Eoin Higgins.

Manager: Nigel Byrne. Selectors: Michael Moran, Mick Brown, Sean Byrne. Kitman: Martin Nolan. Team Administrator: Teresa Nolan.

Eoin Coogan, captain of the team, received the cup from County Chairman Martin Fitzgerald and he paid tribute to his late uncle Peter Coney Byrne who would have been part of this team in one way or another. Many tributes were paid to the late Peter by many players after the game. Well done to manager Nigel Byrne and his backroom team for a job well done

Our Senior Football Team play Hollywood in The Relegation Play Off Football match on Saturday 5th of October in Baltinglass at 6pm.
