

WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY – 24th May 2020

‘Know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time’. When someone we love dies – a parent, a spouse, a brother, a sister, a good friend - we remember the last time we saw that person and, especially, we remember the last words that person spoke. Before Jesus ascended to return to his Father in heaven his last words were ‘I am with you always’. Christ is with us always. He has been with us since he ascended into heaven and will be with us until time itself comes to an end. These words comfort us, especially if we feel depressed at the way of the world, or at events in Holy Mother Church. Today is also World Communications Day and this is an opportunity for us to reflect on how we communicate with each other and the wider world. News travels fast, bad news even faster, but it was not always like that. During the Napoleonic Wars, a monkey escaped from a ship in the port of Hartlepool in the north east of England. The people hanged the monkey, thinking it was a Frenchman. The news of Napoleon’s defeat at Waterloo took two days to reach London. Today, twenty-four hour news channels, newspapers, blogs and social media keep us inundated with news, and with opinion which can disguise itself as news. It is hard to differentiate news from propaganda. We need time to reflect on events, but rarely have the opportunity of doing so. We would be wise to take a leaf from St Paul’s book: to read our daily newspaper, weekly periodical, favourite blog, or to listen to radio or television, with what Paul describes as ‘a spirit of wisdom and perception’. World events may tempt some people to question the existence of God; others no longer listen to radio and television news bulletins or read the daily newspapers because there is so much bad news. Yet amidst all this, may we take note of Christ’s last recorded words in this world, before he ascended into heaven: ‘Know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.’

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPELS

1. Jesus meets the disciples for the last time. His final words give them direction for their future. Perhaps you can recall such parting moments in your own life – leaving home, school, college, or the death of a loved one. Was there an occasion when the words spoken to you gave you direction for the future?
2. Perhaps you can identify with Jesus in the story, when as a parent, teacher, or in some other way, you sent someone on his/her way in life, knowing that you would not be with him or her as in the past. When did the way you parted help the other to make his or her way in life?
3. Despite this extraordinary encounter with Jesus, some of the disciples doubted. Dealing with questions and doubt is part of an adult faith journey. How have your questions and doubts helped to shape the faith you have today?
4. Jesus told his disciples that although he would not be physically with them, he would be with them in a new way right through life. Have there been times when you were reassured by the love and support of another even though he or she was not physically present with you? What are the things that help you to be aware of the presence of Jesus on life’s journey?

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

PENTECOST TRIDUUM OF PRAYER

The Diocese of Kildare and Leighlin invites you to a Triduum of Prayer that is taking place across the Diocese. Households across the diocese are invited to dress their front doors with red ribbons for Pentecost Sunday. An image of a dove can be downloaded and added to the ribbons also. If you have a windchime in your garden you may like to add it to the decoration or place it near your door. Once more, people are invited to send their photos on Pentecost Sunday into the kandle Facebook page.

Beginning on Wednesday 27th May, these three nights of prayer will lead us through what it means to live the true meaning of Pentecost during the time that we find ourselves in.

Entitled Faith, Hope and Love: Living Pentecost Today, each night will take on one of these acts and through the mediums of song, word and prayer we will explore them in the context of the coming of the Holy Spirit and the current pandemic.

The Triduum of prayer leads us to join with Bishop Denis on 30th May as he celebrates the Vigil Mass of Pentecost in Carlow Cathedral and celebrate the birth of the Church and the coming of the Holy Spirit.
