KILTEGAN GAA NOTES:

The final of the Junior C football Macra-Na-Feirme Cup was not played on Sunday as the club were in dispute with Wicklow CC Committee and the County Board over the ruling of some junior players who played in the senior football championship and the information relayed to the club and the management was false information. The Wicklow CC have now made a ruling that any player who plays senior is not eligible for junior. This final is now fixed for Saturday 8th October in Ballinakill at 4pm.

Our senior football team take on neighbours Baltinglass in the senior football championship on Sunday 9th October in Aughrim at 3.30pm. After losing to Donard/Glen in the first match we have to win this one if we are to remain in this years championship. We wish the team the best of luck.

Well done to Kiltegan's under 11 and under 13 teams who took part in football finals at the weekend, there were winners and losers. Michael Dwyers also fielded teams in finals as well. Great work is been done by all coaches in this area and they deserve our thanks.

LOOKING BACK 1993

Saturday 9th October- County Intermediate Hurling Championship Final Kiltegan v St. Patricks Wicklow in Aughrim. Referee: Martin Burns

Final score: Kiltegan 1-9 St. Patricks 0-5
Half-time score: Kiltegan 1-5 St. Patricks 0-0.

Sunday 10th October- County Senior Hurling League Final Kiltegan v Arklow Rocks Parnell's in Arklow. Referee: Christy Byrne.

Final score: Kiltegan 0-10 Arklow 0-5
Half-time score: Kiltegan 0-4 Arklow 0-1.
A great double for our Senior hurlers after winning the senior county final.

Intermediate Team:

J. Byrne (RIP)
M. Boland L. Byrne
D. Byrne J. Boland
P. Gartland D. Hayes
J. Harmon E. Byrne
J. Doyle S. Keogh F. Gartland
J. Boland R. Tallon J. Whelan

Subs: N Pearson, J Bermingham, J Flemming, C Doyle, K Furlong, Tallon, G Wynne, L Kelly
Scores: J Whelan 1-2, E Byrne 4pts, R Tallon, S Keogh, J Bermingham one point each.

Kiltegan Camogie Notes:

Kiltegan under 14 camogie team were crowned County Champions on Sunday a cracking game against Carnew Emmets in Arklow.

The final score: Kiltegan 5-9 Carnew Emmets 4-5.

Unbeaten in all their matches this year they took on a very good Carnew Emmets team in this A Final. They played with the wind in the first half and were leading at half time 4-5 to 3-2. Kiltegan don't do panic and with the O'Toole twins taking control of the game and all the other girls upping their game we were ahead before the water break, and it only got better after that with great scores and tackling they kept Carnew Emmets scoreless in the second half to go on and become County U14 Champions for 2021. Congratulations and well done to all the girls and John and Fiona who coached the girls and everyone else who was involved with the team.

The scores came from Eimer O'Toole 3-6, 2F, 2/45s, Aishling O'Toole 3pts, goals from Clara Carmody, Lily Hayes.

The cup was presented to captain Tundo Majlath by the chairman of the Camogie County Board Ivor Lahane before a large crowd of supporters. A great double for this team after winning the League Final earlier in the year.

Our senior camogie match in the championship on Saturday was abandoned after one of the Donard/Dunlavin players suddenly became ill. After consulting with team officials from both teams and the referee the game was called off as there was a long wait for an ambulance. The girl was air lifted to hospital and thankfully made a recovery.

The game will be refixed Donard were leading at the time by 1-4 to 0-1.

Our Junior camogie team received a walkover from Arklow Rock Parnell's on Saturday.

This weeks fixtures:

Senior play Glenealy away Saturday 11.00am

Junior team play Ballinacor in Kiltegan at 5.30
