KILTEGAN GAA

Our senior football team ground out a hard fought win over Eire Óg Greystones in the Keating Trophy at home on Sunday morning, final score Kiltegan 1-11 Eire Óg Greystones 0-11. After a big win last Sunday in Bray we were put to the sword in this game which could have went any way. Thanks to an early goal by Seanie Furlong we held a slender lead at the first water break and were two points ahead at half time 1-5 to 0-6, they had scored 4 of their points from frees, in fact they scored 7 from frees over all to our 3.

At the second water break we lead 1-8 to 0-10, points from Brandon Ryan, Seanie Furlong and Shane Lennon kept us ahead for a very important win to lead the table in this relegation battle. We played some good football at times but we gave away too many frees and gave away a lot of good ball at times, over carrying or not playing more direct football, but a win is a win and gives us a great boost as we travel to Newtown on Sunday morning to take on the home side at 11am.

Scorers: Seanie Furlong 1-4, a point each from: Ciaran Harmon, Shane Lennon, Colm Keogh, Podge O Toole, Steven Coogan, Andy Foley, and Brandon Ryan.

Our junior C footballers received a walk over from Barndarrig in the C Football championship on Friday last which leaves them in the quarter final. The draw has still to be made to see what teams play each other.

Congratulations and well done to Western Gales minor hurling team who beat Glen Pats to win the Co. Minor A Hurling Championship on Monday in Aughrim. Final score Western Gales 1-15 Glen Pats 1-13. Special congratulations to the two lads from our club Jack O'Toole and James Boland and to John O'Toole who was a mentor with the team. Jack and James were key players on this team James scored 1-4 and Jack 6 points in the semi final, Jack scored 7pts, and James 2 pts in the final. Jack O'Toole also received Man of the Match award from Pat Dunne chairman of Coiste NaNóg. Well done to these two lads, step up to senior hurling with our club next year.

Congratulations to Michael Dwyers under 15 A Hurling team on winning the under 15 Co. Hurling final beating Kilcoole in the final and to Andy Corrigan who received Man of the Match.

Well done to all concerned.

Congratulations to Michael Dwyers u13 B team winning the u13 B Shield Final on Sunday morning well done to all involved.

Commiserations to Michael Dwyers u13 A team who lost out to Luke O'Toole's in the A Final.

Birthday Congratulations to: Wayne Nolan, Olivia Harmon, Teresa Nolan, Declan Whyte, Sondrine Byrne and all who celebrated their birthdays during October.
