SYMPATHY

Our sincere sympathy to the family of Richard (Dick) Stapleton who passed away in his 101st year, in the care of Baltinglass Community Hospital and who's funeral took place on Monday. He was a familiar face in our community, taking daily walks into the village for his newspaper, stopping to chat with neighbours and friends along the way. He was the Hub's first customer. He was a gentleman who embraced life to the fullest. To his son Christy and daughter Kathleen our deepest sympathies.

May he Rest in Peace.

Sincere sympathy to Fr. Tomas O'Connor, his fellow priests in St. Patrick's Missionary Society and the family, friends and relatives of Fr. Leo Flynn SPS who passed away on 7th January and whose funeral took place in Enniscrone Co. Sligo on Wednesday.

Ar dheis De go raibh a anam uasal

We offer our sincere sympathy to the wife, family and friends of the late Brendan Finnegan, Carrickmacross, who passed away recently. Brendan was a former member and player with Kiltegan Gaa when he came to Danny Byrne's farm as a first year apprentice back in 1989. He won medal's with the minor and junior hurling and football teams. He was well known for his wit and was always up for a laugh. Brendan will be greatly missed.

KILTEGAN GAA

As 2021 was coming to an end the sports reporters for the Wicklow People picked their Senior Football and Hurling teams of the year. It was a great honour that some of our players were picked on the teams. Seanie Furlong was selected at full forward on the football team with honourable mention for Cieran Harmon. On the hurling team Mark Murphy was selected at no 9 with Podge O'Toole no 10, Seanie Germaine no 11, with honourable mention for Brandon Ryan and Michael Mangan, Ronan Byrne was selected as hurling manager of the year.

As for the coming year 2022, our club has selected David Galway as our Senior hurling manager/coach. He will be responsible for all hurling matters and will also train the football team for the start of the year. Victor Doyle, Rathvilly will take over managing the Senior football team later in the year.
