FOCUS KILTEGAN

23rd January 2022

CONGRATULATIONS

The Kiltegan community would like to Congratulate Reverend Canon Robert Jones on his honorary appointment as Canon.

This appointment comes as no surprise to us here in Kiltegan as since Rev. Canon Robert joined us here in Kiltegan in 2018, he has immersed himself fully in our community and is committed to ensuring the progress and sustainability of our Kiltegan community.

Book Of Condolence

for Ashling Murphy

Our communities have all been overcome with sadness at the passing of Ashling Murphy. At our vigil in Kiltegan on Sunday last a book of condolence was signed. We will be putting together a typed book of condolence to send to the Murphy family from our GAA/Camogie club and communities.

If any group/people would like to have any condolences added feel free to send these names to focuskiltegan@hotmail.com for inclusion or alternatively call to WWCE offices in Kiltegan and sign the book there on Mon-Friday 9:30am – 1pm.

Birthday greetings this week to Jack Whyte celebrating his 91st and to his grandson Brian Carroll celebrating his 21st birthday.

Kiltegan Camogie club have installed Shane Tobin, formally from Tara Rocks Camogie & GAA Club, as their new trainer/manager for the coming year. He will meet all the players from both teams in the coming week and plan out the year ahead. Shane is living locally and is also a member of the GAA club playing football & hurling with the club. We wish him the best of luck in the year ahead.

Good Luck

Membership of the club is now open to all who want to join for the coming year. Cost as follows: Under 8 is €35, juvenile/student is €50, adult is €75, family is €100, social members €20. Payable to Treasurer Grainne O'Toole 086-1664605 or watch the Facebook page for further details. Closing date is 31st March 2022.

Thanks to our members who helped out at the vigil on Sunday evening for Ashling Murphy in the GAA grounds, it was great to see so many people from the community turning out in support of the Murphy family. Well done to Paula Boland and all who helped in the organising of this event.

Thank You

Well done to Wicklow Senior Hurling team on their win over Longford in the Keogh Cup on Sunday. Players from our club played at some stage in this match with Mark Murphy on the bench. Brian Kearney, Michael Mangan, Brandon Ryan, Seanie Germaine 0-6, Ciaran Conway 0-1, Aaron Byrne, Eoin Byrne, Ciaran Harmon, back in the nineties we had the same amount of players on the Co. Hurling team. Pdraig O'Toole was our sole representative on the Co. Football team beaten by Laois in the O'Byrne cup during the week.

Ciorcal Comhrá will be starting in the club next Thursday 27th January, in St Tegan's Hall, 6.45—7.30, on a trial basis. The Irish language is an important part of our GAA culture so we're delighted to get this going. Open to anyone who wants to practice their Irish in an informal setting.

Kiltegan GAA in conjunction with The GAA's 'Ireland Lights Up' and Operation Transformation want to encourage our entire club and community to come walking. Our walking track and our lights will be on for walking every Monday to Friday from 7pm to 9pm between now and March 2nd. All are welcome. It's a great opportunity to walk, have that chat & meet your neighbours/friends in a safe environment and just get out of the house. Why don't you come along!
