KILTEGAN GAA & CAMOGIE NEWS

Our Senior Football team get their year off the ground with a visit to Coolkenno on Sunday morning at 11 am when they take on the home side in the County Senior Football League. This will be a tough test for the new management as we will not have our county players.

No joy for our County players or Wicklow hurlers as they lost to Derry in the National Hurling League in Aughrim on Sunday. Final score Wicklow 0-12 Derry 2-24, Seanie Germaine scoring 8 points from play, frees and 65's.

We wish Podge O'Toole the best of luck when he lines out for Wicklow in the National Football League against Antrim on Sunday.

For the second week in a row there was no match 3 in our weekly lotto. The jackpot now stands at €7,600, tickets cost €2 and our draw is every Monday night in St. Tegan's Hall.

BREAKING NEWS
Kiltegan GAA & Camogie Development have been awarded €87,111.00
 #nevergiveup #believe YEAH!

Great news for our club this week as we were granted €87,111 from the Sports Capital Programme Grants, for flood lighting, ball barriers gym equipment and general improvements to our grounds. Well done to Paula Boland and the Development committee on the work that went into securing this grant.

Kiltegan Camogie Club wish neighbours Knockananna the best of luck when they take on Fullan Gales, Manchester in the All Ireland Junior B Semi - Final in Abbotstown on Saturday at 1.30.

Our club wishes Coláiste Eoin, Hacketstown and the Kiltegan players James Boland, Matthew Jackson, Jack O'Toole and Ciaran Harmon (captain) the best of luck when they play Gallen C.S.Ferbane in the Leinster Schools Senior D Semi-Final in Stradbally on Saturday at 12 o'clock.
