HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Some really bad dad jokes.....

Why do nurses like red crayons?
Sometimes they have to draw blood.

What kind of noise does a witch's car make?

Brrroooooom, brrroooooom.
What's brown and sticky?
A stick.

Two guys walked into a bar. The third guy ducked.

How do you get a country girl's attention?

A tractor.

What do you call a pudgy psychic?
A four-chin teller.

What did the police officer say to his belly-button?

You're under a vest.

KILTEGAN GAA & CAMOGIE NEWS

Our senior Football team travelled to Kilcoole on Sunday morning to take on the home side in Division 1A of the Senior Football League and came away with all four points and most importantly moved up the league table to keep out of relegation. Final score Kiltegan 2-9 Kilcoole 0-13. In a low scoring first half we were a point behind at half time 0-5 to 0-6. We stepped up a gear after the break and added on some great scores to come away with a very important win. With only one game left in this league against Hollywood, the Senior Championship is just around the corner.

Our Junior hurlers had a great win over table toppers Bray Emmets who made the long journey to Kiltegan on Wednesday evening. Final score Kiltegan 1-15 Bray Emmets 2-10. A very entertaining match played in good spirit by both teams, with the sides level on several occasions, it took two late points by Sean O'Neill to win the match for us.

Our scores came from: L. Kennedy 1-0, S. O'Neill 0-05, M. Peirce 0-04, A. Byrne 0-02, J.J. Phelan 0-02, S. Farrell & L. Byrne 0-01 each.

Fixtures: Div. 5 west League Kiltegan v Stratford/Grangecon in Kiltegan on Thursday 23rd June.

Great news during the week for Kiltegan Camogie Clubs U12's they are one of the teams picked to take part In Tesco Camán to Croker 2022 in Croke Park in August. The Tesco Camán to Croker event is aimed at U12 camogie teams and is part of the wider Gaelic Games Go Games Activity Days.

400 clubs registered unfortunately there were only 64 places available and we were one of the lucky clubs to be picked.

Congratulations to the Wicklow Minor Hurlers Blue Squad winning the Celtic Challenge Corn

William Robinson cup beating Laois in the replay on a score line of 1-11 to 0-11 great to see all these young lads hurling for Wicklow and well done to our club players James Boland,

Rian Walters who captained the team and Jack O'Toole.

Bringing these lads through to senior hurling will be one of the most important if not the most important tasks for club and county to build Wicklow hurling and hopefully we see all these lads driving Wicklow Hurling forwards in the years ahead.

The Celtic Challenge was established in 2016 and is the only competition in hurling that has teams from 32 counties participating.

This section of the Celtic challenge was the Corn William Robinson in memory of the 11 year old boy who climbed a tree to watch Dublin play Tipperary in 1920 on Bloody Sunday and was sadly shot.
