KILTEGAN GAA & CAMOGIE NEWS

Our Senior Football team take on Tinahely in the final of the Keating trophy in Baltinglass on Saturday at 7.00pm. This is our last chance to get our hands on a trophy for this year, so no pressure. We wish the team all the best.

After a lapse of many years we were represented by Katie Phelan in Solo Singing in the Wicklow Score finals in Carnew, unfortunately she did not get the nod from the judges on this occasion. The club appreciates Katie representing us.

Congratulations to near neighbours Clonmore on winning the under 15, under 17, Junior A and Junior C County final over the weekend. Well done to all involved.

Commiserations to Baltinglass who were defeated by St. Pats Wicklow Town in the Wicklow Senior County final on Sunday.

Mixed luck for Michael Dwyer's over the weekend, their minor A hurling team were beaten by Glen/Pats in the County Final on a score line 2-19 to 2-13.

The under 13 B football team lost to Annacurra after extra time 3-09 to 1-08. Better luck for the under 13 D team they beat Blessington in the final 2-11 to 3-07.

Kiltegan Camogie Club wish to thank everyone who contributed to their recent clothes collection fundraiser.

The Minor Camogie Championship starts on the 22nd October, our club has appointed Elisha Foley, Sarah Jane Winder, and Tanya Wynne as selectors.

The O'Toole family, Rathdangan would like to offer a sincere thank you to everyone in the community who helped out, attended the funeral and wake and offered condolences on the recent passing of Gerald (RIP).

In particular we are grateful to Kiltegan GAA and Camogie club members who assisted with car parking, marquee and performed Guards of Honour. Gerald's month's mind mass will take place this coming Friday evening(14th) at 7.30pm in Kilamoate Church.
