KILTEGAN GAA & CAMOGIE NEWS

Our Senior Football team got a bit of a lesson on how to play football from An Tochar on Friday evening in Roundwood in the final of the County Division 1A of the County Senior Football League. The final score An Tochar 3-18 Kiltegan 1-04. They were first out of the traps from the word go and we had no answer for them, no matter how hard we tried. Even though we were fielding an understrength team due to injuries and had no subs this game was over by half time, with the score 2-10 to 0-02. Only a couple of weeks ago we drew with this team in Kiltegan and were the only team to slow down their progress. They were presented with the Corn an Saggart Cup by Co. Chairman Damien Byrne after the game. For us it is back to the drawing board and get ready for the next match in this league to see if we get promoted or stay in this division. Our scores came from Kieran Conway 1-0, Seanie Furlong 2pts 1 free, Rory Finn, Jack O'Toole 1pt each

Fixtures:

Kiltegan V Kilmacanogue in Kiltegan on Sunday 25th June at 11.30am.

Kiltegan V Avondale in Avondale on Sunday 2nd July at 11.30am.

Results:

Under 15 Hurling League
Michael Dwyers 6-08 Western Gales 2-07.

Michael Dwyers U11 hurlers had a great win over Eire Óg, Greystones on Wednesday evening . Keep up the great work lads and thanks to the parents for getting the players to Greystones.

CONGRATULATIONS

Last Saturday we held our annual golf classic in Baltinglass Golf Club which was once again an outstanding success with 38 teams taking part and a huge amount of tee boxes sponsored by local business and individuals. This money raised goes to our development which is gathering pace as work has started on our new committee meeting room and next up is the erection of the ball barriers. Congratulations to everyone involved in organising, sponsoring and playing in this event. Congratulations also to all the winners on the day.
