

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time– Deacon: Rev. Liam Dunne

Gospel: Luke 14:1, 7-14 All are invited to the banquet

In Luke's Gospel, a key part of Jesus' ministry is table fellowship. More than in any of the other Gospels, Luke shows Jesus eating and drinking at table. Today he is at the house of a Pharisee for the Sabbath meal, while the other guests watch him closely. Jesus, noticing how the guests are vying with each other for the seats of honour, tells a parable. At first glance, this story might seem to be suggesting that we deceive others with a false humility, but remember parables always encourages us to think more deeply. They are designed to stay with us for rumination. And so, it is good to pay attention to the questions that arise.

Jesus frequently used the image of a great banquet to explain God's vision for our world. The feast that is described here emphasises hospitality to strangers. Jesus speaks of a preferential option for the poor, the crippled, the lame and the blind. They are outsiders, because of their circumstances, and also because they are considered to be ritually unclean. This parable urges us to be open to real people and their very real situations, breaking down societal barriers to embrace real relationships. This is where one encounters the energy of the Kingdom on earth.

Jesus made it clear that his mission was to release people from whatever is was that made them feel estranged from God (Lk 4:18-21). We are called to partake in this mission, welcoming those considered to be on the outside without hope of reward for ourselves. The feast in today's Gospel is a great celebration of inclusivity and unity. It emphasises once more the reversal Jesus talks about, where the 'highest' take the low seats and the world is turned upside down for the better. There is no shortage of situations in our world which are in need of this type of shake-up. Our task is to help bring it about.

Season of Creation 1st September – 4th October 2025: Peace with Creation

"Future generations will never forgive us if we miss the opportunity to protect our common home. We have inherited a garden; we must not leave a desert for our children."

Joint statement from Pope Francis, the Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew and Archbishop Justin Welby of Canterbury.

This year's Season of Creation has as its theme "Peace with Creation", inspired by the passage from Isaiah 32:14-18; "My people will abide in a peaceful habitation, in secure dwellings, and in quiet resting places." In a world of challenges and division, marked by war and climate change, how can we as people of faith create and work towards peace with creation? Every one of us has a part of play. For this year's resources see <https://www.catholicbishops.ie/season-of-creation-2025/>

All people are warmly encouraged to look out for the document in their parish or to read, download and share it from www.catholicbishops.ie Copies available in each Church.

STAND FOR PEACE - REGIONAL MARCH FOR PALESTINE –

Saturday September 6th - Carlow

Throughout the world people are heartbroken and outraged by the suffering in Gaza and Palestine. One action we can take is to come together in peaceful solidarity with the people of Palestine.

Carlow IPSC, together with Palestine solidarity groups from Kildare, Kilkenny and Laois, invite you to join them for a Regional March for Palestine on Saturday, September 6th at 1pm, departing from the Liberty Tree in Carlow.

Pope Leo XIV continues to "call for an immediate end to the barbarity of the war and for a peaceful resolution of the conflict."

Cardinal Pierbattista Pizzaballa, patriarch of Jerusalem reminds us that "Christ is not absent from Gaza, He is there, crucified in the wounded, buried under rubble, and yet present in every act of mercy, every candle in the darkness, every hand extended to the suffering." Let us walk together in peace and solidarity.
