Kiltegan GAA & Camogie News

County /Scene

Liam Kavanagh's Co Minor Hurling team came up short in the Ulster minor Hurling cup against a very good Antrim team in the final, played in Dunsilly, Antrim on Sunday.

Final score: Wicklow 1-15, Antrim 4 -14. Our lads on the team gave a good account of themselves,

Taylor Ryan scored a point playing wing back,

Sean Byrne, Conor O'Toole, and Ryan Kennedy were injured.

The minor football team had a narrow 2 point win over Tipperary in the Munster Leinster League at Baltinglass on Saturday to book a place in the final of this competition,

Wicklow 0-10 Tipperary 1-5.

Our players on the team: Jack Peter Nolan in goals saved a rasper of a shot in the final seconds of the game,

Josh Furlong scored 4 points, one of these in the final minutes of the game.

Sean Byrne played a full back and was subbed at half time as he had a minor hurling final on Sunday against Antrim.

They played Carlow in the final.

The County Hurlers had a huge win over Fermanagh in the League in Aughrim 5-14 to 0-7,

James Boland got his first shot and played well, as did Brandon Ryan who scored a point, Seanie Germaine 1-0, Bryan Carney was full back.

No luck for the Senior football team as they were well beaten by Antrim who were bottom of the table 2-18 to 1-14,

Podge O'Toole scored a goal, Cathal Fitzgerald was sub goalie.

12 players in all from our club involved over the weekend.

Season

The GAA season kicks off this weekend when we take on Dunlavin in the County Senior Football League Division 1 A at home on Saturday evening 6th march at 5pm,

Without so many County players the new management team have a chance to give the younger up & coming players a chance of game time.

Next weekend it will be the turn of the Hurlers when the County Hurling League takes off.

We play Glenealy in Glenealy on Saturday or Sunday,

Wicklow Co GAA held their County Final of Senior Scor in Newcastle on Saturday night.

Our Club was represented by the Gartland brothers Matt, Tony and Noel,

In the question time they were up against the likes of Blessington who won their 6th county title in a row,

but they put in a good performance.

Katie Phelan represented us in the solo singing competition and won the Title for the second year in a row. And now goes on to represent our County in the Leinster Semi Final. The Club wish to thank those people for representing our Club.
