Kiltegan GAA & Camogie News

Well done!

Junior Football: Team of the week has to be our Junior Football Team who beat the strong favourites Donard/Glen in the semi-final of the County Junior C Football Championship at Baltinglass on Friday evening on a score line of Kiltegan 3-6 Donard/Glen 2-12. This was an excellent game of football end to end stuff played by both teams. The return from exile by three of our former greats: Seanie, Rory Finn & J P Dalton who have not played football for some time, were a great help and had a big impact on the winning of this game. We were losing at half time 0-6 to 0-4. We were treated to a great second half by both teams, the age old story that goals win matches was true in this game as we scored three, the first by Rory Finn, then Jacko and the other by Joey Kelly, They had many chances to draw this game, but our backs were excellent, Daniel Byrne, John Farrell, Gavin Keogh and goalie Colm O'Connor, all the lads kept them at bay, the younger players like Joey Kelly, Charlie Wynne & Wonder all blended in well with the older players to achieve this win and a date with Carnew in the final, Our Scores came from: Joey Kelly 1-1, Rory Finn & J P Dalton 1 goal each, Charlie Wynne 4 pts, Derek Daly 1 pt.

Fixtures: ● Senior Hurling Subsidiary Final - Kiltegan v Eire Óg Greystones, Ballinakill Saturday 3rd October at 8.00 p.m. ● Minor Football Championship Cup Division 1 Semi-Final - Michael Dwyers v St Pats Wicklow Town, Kiltegan 11.00 a.m. Saturday 3rd October. ● Saturday 10th In Arklow, County Junior Camogie Championship Final Kiltegan v Annacurra 1.00 p.m.

Camogie: Our Junior Camogie Team put in a power packed performance to over come Avoca in the Semi-Final of the County Junior Camogie Championships at Arklow on Sunday. The final score Kiltegan 3-12 Avoca 2-6. Playing with the aid of a strong breeze in the first half, our ladies made the most of it getting scores from free's and play, our backs blocked any attempts on our goals. We were playing great camogie all over the field and we went into the break with a commanding lead 2-9 to 0-2, and having 6 wides to their 2 Avoca with the aid of the breeze upped their game and scored some points from play and free's and when they scored their first goal it did not upset our team. A great over head pull by Olive Bermingham for a point to keep us ahead, a third goal by 15 year old Katelyn Keogh ended the game as a contest and a place in the County Final against Annacurra on the 10th October, Overall a great performance by all the girls. Last week we heard of John Keogh winning his first medal at the age of 15, now his daughter Katelyn at the age of 15 was our top scorer with 2-3, Clodagh O'Toole 4 pts (3F), Olive Bermingham 1-1, Leah Spillane 2 pts, Tania Wynne & Orlaith Whelan 1 pt each.

Our Senior Camogie teams dreams of playing in a County Final again were quashed by Annacurra on Sunday when they defeated us in the semi-final of the County Championships at Arklow. Final score Kiltegan 1-8 Annacurra 3-9. We played with the aid of the stormy breeze in the first half but it was Annacurra who were first to score, and went 3 pts up before we had our first after 18 mins of play, they went further ahead with a goal before we pulled back their lead with 2 pts to leave the score at half time 1-3 to 0-3. An Ashling O'Toole point started the come back, soon after Fiona Hobson found the net for a great goal, Ashling O'Toole pointed a free and we had a 2 pt lead with 20 minutes gone, they converted 2 free's to level the match, soon after they scored their 2nd goal, and they scored their 3rd goal before the end of the game and won by 7pts and a place in the Co Final. Our scores came from: Fiona Hobson 1-0, Eimear O'Toole 6 pts (3F, 1 45), Sophie Bermingham & Ashling O'Toole 1 pt each.

Celebration Jubilee Celebration 25 years!

This weekend in Kiltegan, The GAA & Camogie Club will be celebration their Jubilee 25 years since they both won the County Senior Hurling Championship and the County Senior Camogie Championship 2001. Both Clubs will come together on Saturday night 3rd October in the Talk of the Town at 8pm. Both Clubs will make a presentation to all the players who were involved with both teams and some finger food will be provided. Our Senior Hurling Team will be honoured by Wicklow Co Board with a presentation on the field in Echelon Park, Aughrim at half time in the county Senior Hurling final, and proud dog for our club, Captain of the team Gavin Wynne will have the pleasure to lead out our team who beat Glenealy in the final that year.
